

Introduction to Ultrasound in Emergency Medicine

EMSA08

SATURDAY, 17 May, 2008

With Associate Professor Dr Suzanne Langlois

Former Director of Radiology Townsville General and Royal Adelaide Hospitals

Former Major with the Australian Defence Force - 2HSB

Former Organizing Committee Member of the World Congress of Emergency and Intensive Care Medicine

SonoSite

The World Leader in Hand-Carried Ultrasound

9.00 - 10.30am

- Welcome and introduction
- Introduction to portable ultrasound - the SonoSite
- Physics of ultrasound (made easy)
- Artefacts in ultrasound

MORNING TEA

10.45 - 12.30pm

- Applications of portable ultrasound in Emergency Medicine
- Pneumothorax, ETT placement and latest update

LUNCH

1.00 - 3.30pm

- Live demonstration of FAST, AAA, Chest, ETT placement etc
- Live demonstration of basic obstetrics
- Workshops (rotation) - FAST, abdominal, obs and gynae
- Vascular Access (blue phantoms)
- Foreign Body removal under US guidance
- Principles of US guided nerve blocks

AFTERNOON TEA

3.35 - 5.00pm

- Continue scanning (patients and each other) - supervised
- Feedback

CLOSE

- Places are LIMITED for this "hand's on" workshop
- Register NOW as registrations will be considered in date of order received

Log onto: <http://www.emercysa.org.au/registration.htm> to complete the online registration and fax to EMSA

An event organized by

Emergency
Medicine SA

and

SonoSite

